of the state, are hereby superseded to the extent they are inconsistent with the provisions of this charter.

CHAPTER 2 GOVERNMENT

Form.

The municipal government of the town shall be known as the "Council-Manager Government." ~~"All powers of the town are vested in an elected town council hereinafter referred to as the "Council,"~~ except those specific powers as vested in the Financial Town Meeting (FTM). ~~– [Exception to those vested in an FTM if adopted]~~ The Town Council shall be the legislative body of the Town. The Town Council shall determine policies and shall appoint the Town Manager in accordance with section ~~XXXX~~ [insert section No.] of this Charter. The Town Manager shall execute the laws and administer the government of the Town under the authority of the Council.

CHAPTER 3 MUNICIPAL POWERS

Powers Authorized.

The Town shall have all powers of local self-government and all powers possible for a Town to have under the Constitution of this State, together with all the implied powers necessary to carry into execution all the powers granted. The Town shall have such additional powers as now or hereafter may be granted to the Town by the Constitution and laws of the State. All powers of the Town shall be exercised in the manner prescribed by this Charter and by State Law or if not so prescribed, then in such manner as shall be provided by Ordinance or Resolution of the Council.

Property

The town may acquire real property within or without its corporate limits for any purpose, in fee simple or in any lesser interest or estate, by purchase, gift, devise, lease or condemnation, and may sell, lease, mortgage, hold, manage and control such property as its interests may require.

State Law

The laws of the State not inconsistent with this Charter, except those superseded by or declared inoperative by Ordinance or Resolution of the Council, shall have the force and effect of Ordinances of the Town. In the event of ~~a~~ conflict between any Town Ordinance or Resolution and any law of the State, other than a law enacted in conformity with the powers reserved to the General Assembly by the Constitution and except in regard to questions of health, education and police power, the provisions of the Town Ordinance or Resolution shall prevail and control.

~~Existing Ordinances, Resolutions, Rules and Regulations to Continue in Effect.~~

~~To the extent they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this charter, all laws, ordinances, resolutions, rules and regulations in effect on the effective date of this charter shall continue in effect until superseded by law or until they are repealed or amended by the council or by a successor board, commission or other authorized agency of the town.~~

Intergovernmental Relations.

The town may exercise any of its powers or perform any of its functions and may participate in the financing thereof, jointly or in cooperation, by contract or otherwise, with the state or any municipality within the state or their authorized agencies, or with the United States or any agency thereof.

Previous Charter Superseded.

This charter shall supersede all charters, public or special laws and amendments thereto previously granted to the Town of Scituate.

CHAPTER 4 ELECTIONS

Election Laws (Or Non-Partisan)

Conduct of Elections-

~~The election for the choosing of all officials of the Town who, by the provisions of this Charter now or in the future, are to be voted for by the electors thereof, shall be held concurrent with the State general election in each even numbered year. The provisions of the constitution and laws of the State in effect pertaining to elections, special, general and primary, and also all special acts pertaining to elections in the Town now or hereafter in effect, shall govern all Town elections, special, general and primary, so far as they may be applicable, excepting those provisions which are inconsistent with the provisions of this Charter affecting the form of government.~~

Election Laws and Conduct of Elections

The provisions of the laws of the State of Rhode Island pertaining to elections and related matters, including the rights and qualifications of voters; the registration of voters; the Canvassing Authority and Registration, and the registering, listing, and returning lists of voters, and proof of their qualification to vote; canvassing the rights and correcting the list of voters; elective meetings; the hours of opening and closing the polls; voting machines; absentee voting; and crimes, penalties and forfeitures under the election laws; and any and all other provisions of the laws of the State of Rhode Island relating to the qualifications of electors, registration, the manner of voting, the duties of election officials and all other particulars in respect to preparation for, conducting, and management of elections, shall govern every city primary, general and special election, so far as they may be applicable, excepting those provisions which are inconsistent with this Charter.

Non-Partisan Elections

Whenever in said election laws and related matters reference is made to any political party, or reference is made to voting machines as being prepared for voting purposes in accordance with political party designation, or any reference of whatever kind and designation is made in said election laws and related matters to any political party or political designation, for the purpose of this Charter only each and every such reference to a political party shall be held to be eliminated from said election laws in accordance with the provisions of this Charter.

All municipal elections in the Town of Scituate, whether primary, general or special, shall be non-partisan and there shall be no party mark or designation upon any declaration of candidacy, nomination, petition or list of candidates. By April 1 in even numbered years, the Canvassing Authority shall issue a schedule of the filing dates for the elections to be held that year.

NOMINATION PETITION; SIGNATURES.

The nomination of all candidates for elective office in the primary election provided for by this Charter shall be by petition. The petition of each candidate for Town Council-District, Town Council Town-Wide, and School Committee shall be signed by not less than fifty qualified electors of the Town. The petition of each candidate for Town Council/District shall be signed by not less than fifty qualified electors from the District from which the candidate is running. A voter may sign any number of nomination papers for any office the voter may lawfully vote for at the general election.

PRIMARY ELECTION - TOWN COUNCIL.

At any primary election the two town council district candidates of each respective district receiving the highest number of votes shall be deemed and declared to be the candidates for the office of Town Council in their respective district in the general Town election. The candidates for Town Council Town-Wide receiving the highest number of votes, double the number for each respective office to be filled, shall be deemed and declared to be the candidates for the office of Town Council town-wide in the general Town election.

PRIMARY ELECTION; SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

At each primary election, the candidates for School Committee receiving the highest number of votes, double the number for each respective office to be filled, shall be deemed and declared to be the candidates for the office of School Committee.

Primary Elections; Town Officers

At each primary election, the candidates for Town Officer receiving the highest number of votes, double the number for each respective office to be filled, shall be deemed and declared to be the candidates for said office.

Ballot Order.

The position upon the ballot of the names of the candidates in any primary, general or special Town election shall be determined by lot and said names shall be so placed upon said ballot under title of the office to be filled. Said determination of said position by lots shall be conducted by the canvassing authority at which said candidates or their representatives shall be entitled to be present. Candidates shall be notified of the time and place of such drawing at least (48) forty-eight hours in advance thereof and subject to the provisions of the Rhode Island Open Meetings Act as amended.

GENERAL ELECTION DATE.

Municipal elections in the Town of Scituate shall occur in even-numbered years concurrent with state elections.

Town Council Districts

The Town shall be divided into three districts for purposes of election of three (3) Town Councilors. The District lines shall be drawn by the Board of Canvasser in such a manner as to preserve as nearly as may be convenient, consistent with well-defined boundaries, with an equal number of residents in each district. This shall be done in each year when the General Assembly shall re-determine the state representative districts and senatorial districts or sooner if required by law, provided that the initial division of the town into town council district shall be done no later than March of 2020.

~~Board of Canvassers. Board of Canvassers~~

There shall be a Canvassing Authority appointed by the Town Council as provided by the constitution and laws of the State. Said Canvassing Authority shall be vested with all powers and duties vested by State law in the Canvassing Authority of the Town. In addition, it shall be the duty of said Authority to determine and review boundary lines of the districts for the election of members of the Town Council. ~~The Authority shall not later than the second Tuesday in January, 2020, devise and approve to the General Assembly a plan dividing the Town into three (3) districts in such a manner that each district shall consist of a compact and contiguous portion of the Town, each containing as nearly as possible an equal number of inhabitants. Thereafter, the Authority shall within one (1) year after the publication of each decennial census, or more frequently, review and if necessary alter, the district boundary lines of said districts.~~

CHAPTER 5 TOWN COUNCIL

ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS

Number, Selection, Term.

The council shall consist of seven (7) members elected from the town of Scituate. Four (4) members shall be elected town-wide and one member from each of the three (3) town council districts as established in accordance with section X of this Charter by the ~~local~~ Board of Canvassers. Members of the town council shall be elected to serve two (2) year terms. The district-candidate with the most votes in each of three council districts shall be elected. The top four at-large candidates receiving the highest vote totals shall be elected to the town-wide council seats.

The term of office of any duly elected town council member shall begin at the regular December meeting of the council on the first Thursday after the first Monday in December immediately following the approval of the minutes by the out-going council as the first order of business. Prior to this meeting the outgoing council shall meet in work sessions with the in-coming council to plan an orderly transition.

Qualifications, Vacancy, Restrictions

Members of the council elected by districts shall be qualified electors and residents of the district from which elected, and the members ~~at~~ elected at-town-wide shall be a qualified electors and residents of the Town.

The oath of office shall not be administered to a member-elect nor shall any person continue to serve as a member of the council if he the person holds any other elected or appointed position within the town, state or federal government or has been convicted of a crime of moral turpitude, except that of notary public, a member of a regional, state or federal advisory, investigatory or regulatory board, commission or similar agency, a member of the National Guard, a military reserve unit or a teacher in a school or college.

No member or member-elect of the council shall be appointed to any other position in the town government during his/her term of office or for the term for which he/she was elected, or for two years after the expiration of his/her term to a position existing or created in town government during his term of office.

A council member shall be deemed to have vacated his seat on the council due to death, resignation in writing filed with the Town Clerk, removal of his residence from the town, a removal from office in any matter authorized by law, acceptance of any position with the state or federal government, other than as permitted in subsection (?) of this section, or has been convicted of a felony or of a crime involving moral turpitude. The vacancy shall be filled by a qualified elector from the same district or town-wide from which the councilmember-resided as ~~necessary, the case may be.~~

Forfeiture of office.

A Council member shall forfeit office if the member (1) lacks, at any time during the term of office, any qualifications for the office prescribed by this Charter, or by law; (2) violates any express provision of this Charter; or (3) is convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude.

Term Limits

No council member, whether elected in a council district or town-wide, shall be eligible to serve as an elected or appointed member of the council if said member has previously served on the town council for a total of (8) eight consecutive years during any (12) twelve- year period.

Filing of Vacancies

If a vacancy shall occur in the Town Council six (6) months or more prior to the next regular election, a special election shall be called by the Town Clerk in the manner prescribed by law to fill such vacancy. If, by the thirtieth day after the vacancy occurs, the Town Clerk shall have failed to call such special election, then the Board of Canvassers shall call such election to fill such vacancy within forty-five (45) days of the date of occurrence of such vacancy.

If such vacancy shall occur less than six (6) months prior to the next regular election, the vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term by the remaining members of the Town Council within thirty (30) days. The vacancy shall be filled by a qualified elector from the same district from which the vacancy occurred or by any qualified resident if the vacancy occurs in the town-wide council seat. The vacancy shall be posted in at least three (3) forms of local media including the Town's website as well as notifying the local political parties in the town.

~~[Question: If partisan elections, should the council person be of the same political party of the person who is being replaced]~~

Judge of election and qualification of members.

The Town Council shall be the judge of the election and qualification of its members, and of the grounds for forfeiture of the office. For that purpose the Town Council shall have power to subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, and require the production of evidence.

Presiding officer.

The Town Council shall elect from among its members a president and a vice-president, each of whom shall serve at the pleasure of the Town Council. The president shall preside at meetings of the Town Council. The president shall have the right to speak and shall vote as any other member. The vice-president shall act as president during the absence or temporary disability of the president.

The Town Council president shall be recognized as head of the town government for all ceremonial purposes and by the Rhode Island Governor for purposes of military law but shall have no administrative duties.

Declare state of emergency.

The president of the Town Council shall have the power and authority (1) to declare a state of emergency in the event of a disaster, catastrophe, other similar event, or imminent danger thereof which endangers the public peace, health, safety, welfare, and the protection of property of the inhabitants of the town and (2) to take such lawful action as the president deems necessary.

Compensation.

The Council members shall each receive an initial annual salary of $2,500; an additional allowance of $1,000 shall be paid to the president of the Town Council for expenses.

The Town Council may, from time to time, fix the annual salary of each Council member and of the president of the Town Council; provided, however, that no such ordinance changing the salary of the Council members, or of the president of the Town Council, shall become effective during the current term of such Town Council and upon approval of the voters of the next regularly held Financial Town Meeting.

Quorum

Four (4) members of the Town Council shall constitute a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time and may compel the attendance of absent members in the manner and subject to penalties prescribed by the rules of the Town Council. No action of the Town Council, except as otherwise provided in the preceding sentence, shall be valid or binding unless adopted by the affirmative vote of four (4) or more members of the Town Council. Upon the request of any member of the Town Council, a roll call vote shall be taken on any matter, and the ayes and nays shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Regular meetings.

The Town Council shall meet regularly at least once in every month, and may meet more often, at such times and places as the Town Council may prescribe. The time and place of all regular meetings shall be set by the Town Council, by Resolution, at its first annual meeting after an election and on the first regular meeting after the last date set by the initial Resolution.

Live-Streaming

All regular and special meeting of the Town Council shall be live-streamed and recorded and accessible to be viewed by the public at a later date. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the holding of a meeting upon the unavailability of live-streaming, because of technical difficulties or its unavailability because of the location of the meeting.

Public Comment

All scheduled regular meetings, special meetings, and work sessions held by the Town Council shall require an agenda item for public comment. The council may adopted such rules and regulations necessary to carry out this provision.

Work Sessions

The town council, at the request of the Town Administrator, the town Council President, or by the written request by four council members submitted to the Town Clerk, shall hold work sessions. The purpose of a Council work session is to research, gather information or take public comment, on any matter requested by the person or persons who shall have requested the work session. ~~meeting~~. No motions or votes shall be taken at a work session.

Special meetings.

Special meetings of the council may be held at the call of the president, or, in the absence of the president, at the call of the vice-president, or at the call of four (4) or more members. Notice of a special meeting shall be delivered to each member or left for the member at the member's home or place of business at least forty-eight twelve (4812) hours prior to the time fixed for the special meeting. Any member may waive the requirement of notice of a special meeting, and such waiver shall be entered in the record of the proceedings of such special meeting. The purpose of a special meeting shall be stated in the notice of the meeting, and no business shall be transacted at any special meeting other than that stated in the notice.

Open Meetings

All regular, work session, emergency, or special meetings shall adhere to all the requirements of the Rhode Island Open Meetings Act and any amendments thereto.

Powers and duties.

Except as otherwise provided by law or by the provisions of this Charter, all powers of the town shall be vested in the Town Council. The Council shall provide for the exercise thereof and for the performance of all duties and obligations imposed upon the town by law.

The Council shall be vested with the power to adopt, amend, and repeal ordinances for the preservation of the public peace, health, safety, welfare, and for the protection of persons and property; and with the power to provide for their enforcement by the enactment of appropriate penalties for the violation thereof.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Town Council shall have and shall exercise the following specific powers, subject to the provisions of the constitution, and laws enacted by the General Assembly in conformity with the powers reserved to the General Assembly.

The Moderator shall be as elector of the Town qualified to vote in Financial Town Meeting. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of Moderator, by death, removal out of Town, resignation, neglect or refusal to qualify, or for any other cause, the Town Council may fill the same until the next election for the election of such office; provided that if on the date and hour set for any annual or special Financial Town Meeting the office of Moderator be vacant or he/she be absent the qualified electors present shall elect a Moderator to preside at such meeting.

Duties of Moderator.

The Town Moderator shall preside at all Financial Town Meetings and shall have power to conduct, manage and regulate the business of each meeting conforming to law and shall maintain peace and good order therein. If any person shall conduct himself or herself in a disorderly manner in any Town Meeting, the Moderator may order that person to withdraw from the meeting; and, on his or her refusal, may order a Town of Scituate police officer, to take that person from the meeting.

Canvass prior to meeting.

Prior to any Town Meeting prescribed by law or Special Town Meeting called by request in the manner hereinafter provided, the list of electors qualified to vote in such Town Meetings shall be made out and canvassed in the same manner as provided by Rhode Island State law with respect to elections.

Quorum.

One hundred qualified electors shall be necessary to constitute a quorum at any Financial Town Meeting. Immediately after the call to order to the Financial Town Meeting, the clerk of the Board of Canvassers shall certify to the Town Moderator the number of eligible electors present and the Town Moderator shall announce the certified number present. If fewer than a quorum of 100 electors is certified, the budget as proposed by the Town Council shall be adopted as submitted along with any bond or borrowing measures with no debate or changes allowed and the Financial Town Meeting shall be automatically adjourned.

Procedure at Financial Town Meeting.

In all matters arising in the conduct of the Financial Town Meeting, Roberts Rules of Order shall apply; provided, however, whenever any question shall be pending involving any expenditure of money, or the incurring of liability by the Town, or the disposition of Town property, the same shall be taken by ballot, if a ballot be called for, and the call be seconded by at least 1/5 of the electors present who are qualified to vote on the pending question. All questions shall be decided by a majority of those voting, unless otherwise provided by law.

Record of proceedings as evidence; certificate of Clerk.

A copy of the record of the proceedings of any Financial Town Meeting, duly certified by the Town Clerk, shall be evidence of any act or vote of such Town in Town Meeting assembled, recited in such copy; and the certificate of the Town Clerk that no Town Meeting has been held to consider any subject in said certificate mentioned, or that no vote of the Town has been taken upon such subject, shall be evidence of the fact therein stated.

Recessed meetings.

Any Financial Town Meeting, by majority vote of the electors voting on the motion duly made and seconded, providing that the hour of 11:00 p.m. has arrived, shall refer to a recessed meeting, any unfinished business to be transacted. Such a recessed meeting shall be held on the following day, at 7:00 p.m.

Special meetings.

Whenever the Town Council by resolution, or whenever 10% of the electors of the Town qualified to vote on a proposition to impose a tax or for the expenditure of money shall make a request in writing, for the calling of a special Financial Town Meeting and direct the same to the Town Clerk, he/she shall cause the electors to be duly notified of the time and place of such meeting and of the business proposed to be transacted therein. No special Financial Town Meeting shall be called without the consent of the Town Council if the subject or any of the subjects proposed to be considered at such special Town Meeting shall have been acted upon by a Town Meeting within six months previous to the time of such proposed call.

Procedure for Amending the Proposed Budget at the Financial Town Meeting

No motion for the expenditure of money, other than the budget proposed by the by the Town Council, shall be in order at a Financial Town Meeting, unless it shall have been filed in writing with the Town Clerk and signed by at least 25 electors qualified to vote at the Financial Town Meeting not less than 10 calendar days previous to the date of such meeting at which such motion is to be considered; the Town Clerk shall include in the call for such meeting a notice that said motion shall be considered at said Financial Town Meeting.

No motion increasing or decreasing an appropriation by more than 10% of the appropriation's dollar amount set forth in the budget recommended by the Budget Board, or $100,000, whichever amount is less shall be in order at the Financial Town Meeting unless it shall have been filed in writing with the Town Clerk not less than 10 calendar days previous to the date of such meeting at which such motion is to be considered; the Town Clerk shall include in the call for such meeting a notice that said motion shall be considered at the Financial Town Meeting. [Other than as set forth in this section, provided, however, that nothing contained in this Charter shall be construed to prevent the increase or decrease of any appropriation which is lawfully contained in the warrant or which is recommended by the Town Council.]

Resolutions and reports filed with the Town Clerk.

All reports, recommendations and resolutions to be offered at any Financial Town Meeting by an agency of the Town government or any person qualified to vote at the said meeting, shall be filed with the Town Clerk not less than 10 calendar days prior to the meeting and read at the opening of the meeting on the order of the Moderator.

- A. The School Committee shall determine and control all policies affecting the administration, maintenance and operation of the public schools and shall have all the powers and be subject to all duties prescribed by the laws of the State and may provide rules and regulations for the use, operation, and maintenance of public school properties, and for vacations of all officials and employees of the School Department. The School Committee shall hold not less than ten (10) regular meetings per year.
- B. The School Committee shall appoint, and establish the compensation of a Superintendent of Schools as its chief administrative agent, who shall have, under the direction of the School Committee, the care and supervision of the public schools. No person shall be employed as Superintendent of Schools unless such person holds a certificate of qualification issued by, or under the authority of, the State Board of Regents for Education. The Superintendent shall be subject to removal at the discretion of the School Committee by vote of a majority of all members of the School Committee, with a public hearing, if the Superintendent shall request the same. There shall be no right of appeal from the decision of the School Committee.
- C. The appointment and removal of all school employees and fixing of salaries shall be made by the School Committee upon recommendation of the Superintendent of Schools, except as may be provided otherwise by the laws of the State. Except for the purpose of inquiry, the School Committee, as far as is consistent with the laws of the State, shall deal with the administration of the public schools solely through the Superintendent of Schools and neither the School Committee nor any member thereof shall give orders to any subordinate of the Superintendent of Schools, either publicly or privately. All details of administration shall be handled by the Superintendent or other administrative officers to whom he delegates the work.
- D. The School Committee shall submit budget estimates, after at least two public hearings, in the same manner as other departments, and the budget estimates and appropriations shall be considered by the Finance Director. The allocation of the amounts appropriated shall be determined by the School Committee.
- E. The Finance Department of the Town shall have the responsibility of maintaining records of all expenditures and obligations of funds by the School Department, of charging the same to the various line items in the school budget, and of keeping the school Department informed of the status of its various accounts.
- F. The School Committee shall prepare a complete report of its finances and activities annually and make available for public inspection copies of the report at the offices of the School Committee and of the Town Clerk.

- G. At the request of the School Committee the Town Manager may direct appropriate departments under his or her jurisdiction and control to maintain, care for, or otherwise provide services for school buildings, grounds, motor vehicles and equipment, provided that the costs be charged against the appropriation for the public schools, such costs to be determined by the Town Manager and paid at the direction of the School Committee.
- H. The School Committee shall [have] the power to issue subpoenas to compel witnesses to testify and produce records as prescribed by State law.
- I. The School Committee shall make the facilities under its jurisdiction available to the Town Recreation Commission for the use of said commission in its programs upon request, provided that the making available of such facilities, or of any specific facility, does not interfere with same scheduled use for school purposes, and provided further that the Recreation Commission shall reimburse the School Department for any costs incurred in the use of such facilities.
- J. The School Committee shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as prescribed by State law and as are not inconsistent with this Charter.

CHAPTER (?) CHARTER AMENDMENTS/CHARTER ADOPTION

CHAPTER ? CHARTER AMENDMENTS/CHARTER COMMISSION

A. No less frequently than every third year after adoption of this Charter, the Town Council shall appoint a Charter Review Commission of no fewer than seven (7) qualified electors of the Town. A quorum of said Charter Commission shall be five (5). The members of the Charter Commission shall not be composed of all members from the same political party. The Charter Review Commission shall examine the utility of the Charter in its current form and shall recommend to the Town Council any amendments its members, by a majority vote of those present, believe are necessary for the efficient operation of the Town government. Said recommendations, if any, shall be made no later than 365 days from the date of the appointment of the Charter Commissions.

B. Upon receipt of the approved recommended changes to the Charter from the Charter Commission, the Town Council shall hold at least (1) public hearing on the proposed changes within 30 days of receipt from the Charter Commission.

C. Within 30 days of the end of the last scheduled public hearing, the town council shall hold a separate meeting to adopt or reject the recommended charter amendments as proposed by the Charter Commission. Only those recommendations receiving a vote of the majority of the town council present shall be presented to the voters of the town for consideration at the next regular general election of the town in accordance with section X.

D. The Town Council may at any time propose amendments to the Charter. Amendments shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the Town for approval at any regular or special election. Said amendments shall follow the procedure for the adoption of ordinances as set for in section X of this Charter.

E. The Town Council shall have the authority to enact an ordinance consistent with this Charter that provides a procedure for Charter amendment. The ordinance may provide that proposed amendments need not appear in their entirety on the ballot if any only if the full text of any proposed charter amendment along with an explanation of the proposal as prepared by the board of canvasser appears in a newspaper of general circulation, on the town website, posted in at least three public places in each of the town council districts or is otherwise mailed to each household in an informational bulletin

CHARTER AMENDMENT BY VOTER INITIATIVE

The qualified electors of the Town shall have the right to initiate amendment of this Charter.

An amendment shall be initiated by submitting to the Board of Canvassers a petition containing a number of signatures of qualified electors equal to (10%) ten percent of the number of votes cast in the most recent general election. Each signature shall be accompanied by an address. Each person who obtains signatures on a petition shall swear or affirm under oath that the persons who signed the petition did so in the presence of the person who obtained the signatures. A copy of the Charter section or sections proposed for amendment, with text to be repealed struck through and text to be added underlined, shall be attached to the petition. A separate petition shall be required for each amendment or each group of related amendments.

Within ten (10) business days of receipt of the petition, the Board of Canvassers shall certify the number of valid signatures. If the petition contains the sufficient number of signatures, the Board of Canvassers shall forward the petition to the Town Clerk. The Town Clerk shall include a discussion of the proposed amendment on the agenda of the next regular Town Council meeting, and shall forward a copy of the petition to the Town Solicitor, who shall render a written opinion to the Town Council as to the legality of the proposed amendment.

At the Town Council meeting, the Town Council shall ask one or more of the petitioners to explain the purpose of amendment. The Town Council may question one or more of the petitioners, and the Town Council may permit members of the public to question one or more of the petitioners. The Town Council shall make public the Town Solicitor's opinion at the meeting.

The petitioners may withdraw the petition by submitting to the Board of Canvassers a request for withdrawal signed by 20 percent or more of the persons whose signatures on the petition were certified as valid.

If the petition is not withdrawn, the proposed Charter amendment or amendments shall appear as a referendum question or questions on the ballot at the next scheduled general election. A summary of the proposed amendment shall appear on the ballot as written and shall be accompanied by the words "Proposed Charter Amendment Initiated by Voter Petition." If a majority of qualified electors approve the amendment, it shall take effect no more than (30) thirty days after the Board of Canvassers certifies the result of the referendum or later if such effective date is contained in the amendment.

AMENDMENT APPROVAL PROCESS

All proposed amendments to this Charter shall be submitted to the voters of the Town for approval thereof at a general or special election, as required by this Charter, and said amendments shall not become effective unless a majority of the persons voting upon said question shall approve said amendment or amendments.

RIGHT OF HOME RULE PRESERVED

Nothing in the Chapter section shall be construed or intended to divest the electors of the Town of Scituate of their right to enact a Home Rule Charter as established in Article (?) of the Rhode Island Constitution.
